Dec 28 1850

Saturday evening meeting.

I did not get into meeting untill after the first hymn or anthem was sung and Elder Bro. Eli Houston had addressed the assembly. I mean to be particular in narating the proceedings of this meeting, mearly avoiding things which would appear to be repetitions — I will also give near as I can, the testimonies borne by each one, because be it remembered that the whole scene was extremely interesting to me, and made a deep and lasting impression on my mind

After the usual introductory exercises as marching dancing in the circular, Singing &c we took our sides, and danced a few songs in the mixed dance, indeed went forth with considerable power there was none that I saw occupied any particular spot, or section of the floor, but passed each other in rapid flight changing positions and places in divers ways, seeming to be moved by some other motive than for the purpose of mortal pleasing, or flesh pleasing. Thus we continued to exercise for a few songs at first nothing in the mean time being said, for it seemed as tho' each one felt more anxious to do than to say

At this juncture E. Bro. spoke and said that it felt to him that it was now a time that it required everyone to be awake and be ingaged in the work earnestly for themselves &c &c. This he was united in by the brethren and sisters generaly. Bro. Amos said he hoped no one would take offence because some other one had become honnest, and felt the need of exposing all their own weaknesses in the order, and also the weaknesses of those who had in any wise been assisting in disorderly doings in any way, that it is the duty and privelege of every believer to release themselves, and unburthen their minds in the order of Gods appointment, and such things as were opened there no one had any right to call the individual in question who made the opening

This is the truth and I care not how much offence I may give anyone who is disposed to take offence from such a cause, I do no crave the friendship of such ones the sacrifice which they require for a continuation of their friendship is to great, and one which I dare not yay I cannot give, It feels to me as elder Bro. expressed it and I had similar feelings when he spoke, that it did realy stand every one in hand to save their own souls and altho it may seem to us at times as tho we were drawn to our utmost exertions to keep the way of God yet I do believe there is for every honest soul a sufficiency of stimulous in the gospel, for my own part I want to be in the work of saving my own soul; And I do hope that no one will be so cruel, as some time hence, to say, (to those which have spoken their faith and borne their testimony against evil this evening) in a twitting way "I knew you would not keep your promises" &c &c. it is wicked to talk so they are no believers who talk this way. if any one wants to help me to keep the way of God I beg of them to not speak so to me if I am overtaken in a fault, but if I have done wrong tell me candidly and kindly of it with a disposition to help me, but by no means to reproach me with any good promises which I made ~~on this the weakness of the~~ in meeting it is wicked to do so, and those who think to justify themselves because they have kept their mouth closed this evening, and have not commited themselves by making any promises or bearing their testimony against sin,— and think that in some future day they may have the better right to upbraid those who have, such are wicked ones and deceitful workers and no believers,— And have already commited themselves by presenting themselves to worship here at all. &c &c

Bro. Oliver H. Looking at the great length of privilege he had in the gospel, he felt that it became him to walk exceedingly carefuly up to his best light, and labor to keep the gospel as it was first comited to us, ~~hands~~ by the Queen of Zion and obey the watch-word "Hands to work and hearts to God." laboring for protection

Bro. Henry R. Thinking of the privelege that he enjoyed and comparing his state with many others who were wandering to, and fro without rest, or hope. the reflection of these things, brot feelings of thankfulneſs over him for his present privelege. which caused him to prize it greatly and he meant to improve it, and keep the fear of God and labor to keep the present power which he felt, by keeping the orders of the gospel. &c &c

Bro Samuel L. I do not mean to afflict my brethren and sisters by making a great ado about these little croſses which I meet in the way, but labor to do my duty cheerfully, without murmuring, I will not throw on others things that I ought to bear myself. I do want to save my own soul and feel the importance of being in earnest about it. (and much more to the same point)

Bro. Israel T. I do not mean to be too heavy a tax on my brethren and sisters, but I want to shake shake against the nasty flesh. I have felt for some time the great need of such a gift as the present,- We hear of a time of war being some years ago in the Church. for my part do not look upon that gift in that day as being the product of fanatacism, but as being a gift which was neceſsary in the day of it to war the powers of evil, and as such was the use of that war in that day. we have need of a similar war in this day. and the end of this war is not yet, nay not yet

Bro Lewis Volentine I felt poor and needy and would would like the help of the good brethren and Sisters to help me, as I am not able to labor myself. &c &c.

Bro Andrew Biattie Spoke more feelingly than I have ever recollected of hearing speak before, he realy seemed to minister a good degree of sincerity

Bro Philip Antes. I feel exceedingly thankful for my present privilege, and of the necessity of well improving it I felt that there was great strength here. and I felt that this strength was in my brethren and Sisters, (and much more)

Emily Patterson Spoke but I have interely lost the thread of her testimony, but think that she said she felt the need of doing the work for herself, as none else could do it for her, also I believe she said she meant to keep her faith. (and much more,) She seemed to evince a good degree of feeling and sincerity, and I am in hopes she will profit by her privilege, in future.

Elizabeth Farr Said mothers Love is her spirit is here, O brethren and sisters do gather Mothers love. &c &c

Sister Nancy Mc: I am glad there is no quarters here for the flesh! no quarters for the flesh! which was repeated, and reechoed throughout the room for some time.

The meeting about this time took quite a confused mixed shape both in laboring and speaking and would require more tact than the writer has, to give any adequate idea of its particular shape all that I can say to convey an idea to those who witnessed our meetings previous to the coming of the Advent believers to visit us, and during their stay among us, if you can draw up to your mind & view a meeting of those days, then you can have a pretty correct Idea of our meeting last evening

Dec 28 . 1850

The power of God was poured out to a very remark able degree, on all. and many seemed to have a place for it, and were easily led, and willingly united with the tide of Gods goodness while the heavens seemed to be opened, and not even a partial cloud seemed to intervene

Truly it was a hot place for the flesh, and for all dishonest sincoverers, there seemed to be no place left to hide. the light of God shone through every part of the house. and uncovered sin in its various lurking places. the covering seemed to be perfectly taken off, and the beast, and whore left desolate and forsaken of all those who used to, honor and worship them with the boldness of hell.

In one or two instances some got so shot at that they were so wounded and forloren that they realy looked pittiful, Such thought I is the hope of the hypocrite and such may it continue to be with all those who cunningly set their sense to work against the good of their own souls & the souls of others

The time was well used up during our meeting and when I returned to my room, time with its steady advance had made its way within ten minutes of ten o clock P.m. not a very extraordinary long meeting to be sure, but as meeting was commenced early or pretty soon after we assembled there was time plenty for all to take a full share of every gift and exercise. for my own part altho I could have continued much longer. and been edified greatly in the meeting, yet my bodily powers were perfectly exhausted, and needed recuscitating. it was some time befor I could ~~sleep~~ rest, for "Tired natures sweet restorer balmy sleep" had fled from my eyes. and this morning Sabbath I awoke languid and sore, and lay down on the carpet and fell asleep untill breakfast time

Sabbath December 29th

Dec 29. Cold

No church meeting Eld Bro. thought that it was too slippery for the Second order to attend

Had meeting at home First Family a good meeting good life and power freedom and simplicity, considerable speaking, all who spoke seemed to speak with feeling. Eld Bro. told me he did not know as he had ever heard the young people speak with so much real feeling of sincerity as they had done last night and today.

Truly when we consider how much we are indebted to God for all his notice of us from time to time we cannot but be thankful for his continued mercies
